

Psalm 100:4

Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

¶ A Psalm^{H4210} of praise

Psalm 100:1-5

[1] Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands^{H776}.

[2] Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.

[3] Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

[4] Enter into his gates^{H8179} with thanksgiving, and into his courts^{H2691} with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.

[5] For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.

Psalm 100 has the following poetic format (rhythmic structure) which is not uncommon in Hebrew (the entire old testament):

- Praise
- Reasons to praise
- Praise
- Reasons to praise

Psalm 100:1-4 not only encourages us to praise the LORD but also gives us reasons to praise the LORD and also tells us ways that we can do so:

v1,2b	Make a joyful noise	With singing
v2a	Serve the LORD with gladness
v4a,4b	With thanksgiving	With praise
v4c,4d	Be thankful
v4d	Bless His name (speak good of Him)	To curse someones name (which is the opposite of blessing someones name) is to speak evil of them (Mal. 2:2, Exo. 22:28, Rom. 12:14, Matt. 26:74, I Kings 2:8, Neh. 10:29)

Psalm 100:3 reminds of at least one way that we can be thankful: it reminds us that God is our creator and likens us to the sheep of His pasture. Like a good shepherd, He provides all that we need and more.

John 10:11

I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

John 10:14

I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine.

Psalm 100:5 gives us more reasons to be thankful: God is good and His mercy and truth endures forever (Ps. 136:1).

There are many parallels between different psalms. Here is a small sample.

Psalm 95	Psalm 96	Psalm 98	Psalm 100
[1] O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.	[1] O sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth. [2a] Sing unto the LORD,	[4] Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud noise, and rejoice, and sing praise. [5] Sing unto the LORD with the harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm. [6] With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the King.	[1] Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye lands. [2] Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence with singing.
[2] Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms.	[2b,2c] bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day. [3] Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people.		[4] Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.
[3] For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods.	[4] For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods.		[5] For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his truth endureth to all generations.
[7a-7c] For he is our God; and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.			[3] Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
